

King Abdul-Aziz University –
Projects Directorate
P.O. Box 80200 Jeddah 21589 KSA
Mobile+966- 569928906
Tel +966-12-695-2000 Ext.73116
akmukhtar@ashcon.com.co
ashrafsiddiq@hotmail.com

About The Instructor

Ashraf Abdulkarim Siddiq Mukhtar
CPCM, PMP, AVS

Mr. Ashraf A Mukhtar is one of a handful of Certified Professional Contracts Manager (CPCM) designated by National Contract Management Association (NCMA) USA, in GCC & MENA, by year 2000, he has Completed his Bachelor degree in Civil Engineering at Sudan University for Science and Technology – Khartoum, Mr. Mukhtar's career started as Site Engineer at Shell Intl., after that he joined Hamrani Group as Project Engineer, then Saudi Electricity Company where he assigned as Project Controller. For the last ten years he was developing his management skills and contract competencies by Continuous Learning and Self-Development Program, and successfully he earned the following certificate:

- Associate Value Specialist (AVS) by the Society of American Value Engineers (SAVE).
- Project Management Professional certificate (PMP) by Project Management Institute (PMI).
- Certified Professional Contracts Manager (CPCM) by National Contract Management Association (NCMA).
- G.C.C Commercial Arbitration Centre – Bahrain/ Arbitrators' Qualification & Development Program.

After his long development and consulting experience in contracting industry, Mr. Mukhtar has established a consulting and training firm, He is the Founder & CEO of “ASHCON”, which provides a vase range of consultancy services include Contract Management Consultancy, Advisory Services, Courses & Training, Dispute Avoidance Resolution and Arbitration within KSA and Sudan, currently he's working at King Abdul-Aziz University projects consultancy team as Sr. Contract Management officer, Living in Jeddah city, Mr. Mukhtar is the proud father of three ambitious children.

